UNHCR The UN Refugee Agency | CORE in collaboration with

SOUTH SUDAN

New population movements from Sudan

Week 1 updated - as of 28 Apr 2023

Fighting between Sudanese Armed Force (SAF) and paramilitary Rapid Support Force (RSF) erupted in Darfur and other regions in Sudan. Thousands of people fled their homes seeking for refuge and protection in the neighboring countries.

Since 16 April 2023, South Sudan received thousands of new arrivals by several point of entry along the border between Sudan and South Sudan.

13,292
estimated newly arrived individual

1,998
estimated households

Gender breakdown of new arrivals

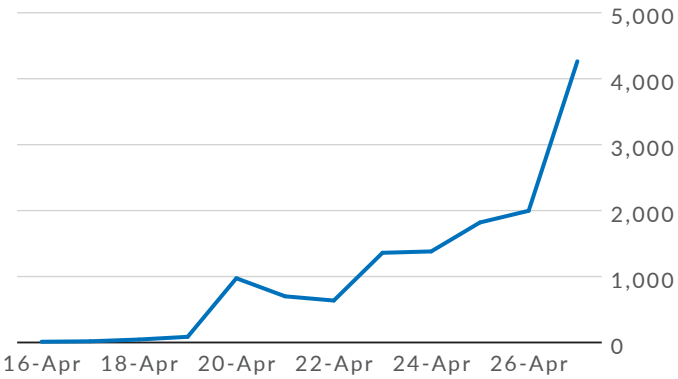
Female	Male
53%	47%

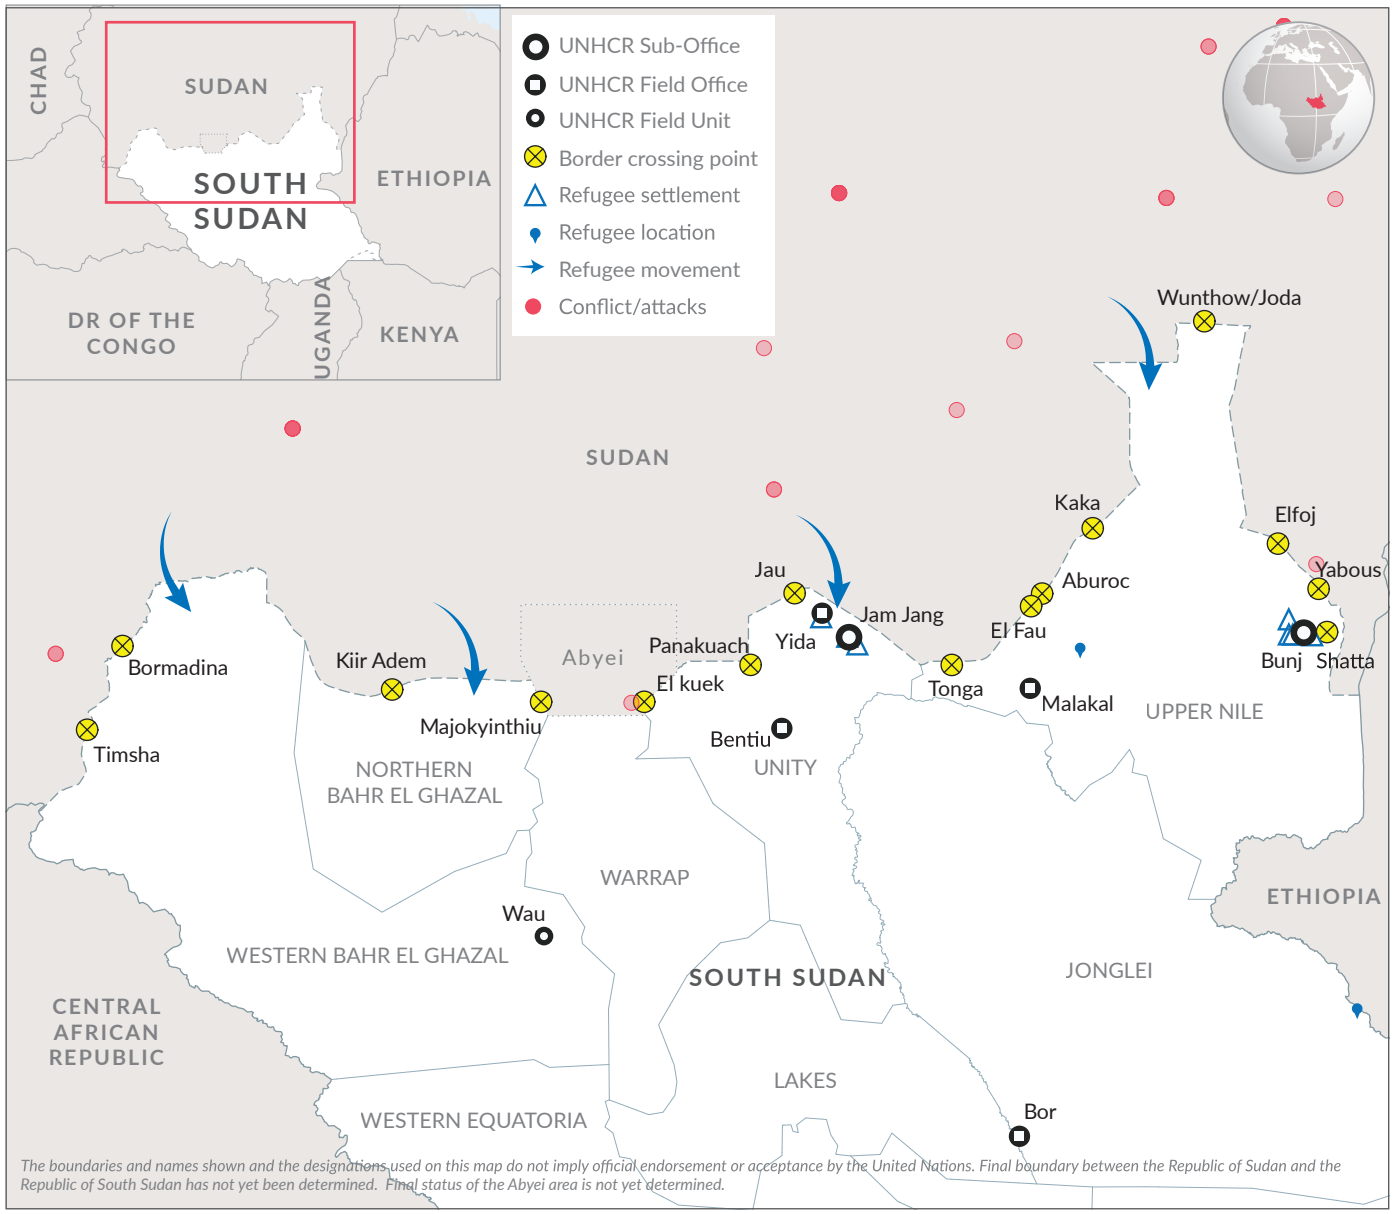
Arrivals by nationalities

South Sudanese returnees	Refugees from Sudan[a] - 331
11,8k	1.1k

Third country nationals

Daily arrival trends





[a]Includes Sudanese seeking for asylum and refugees of other nationalities who resided in Sudan.
Sources: UNHCR, IOM, Government of South Sudan